

Special Needs

- Programming is individualized to the needs of each child.
- Special needs students' learning may occur in regular classrooms, separate special needs classes, or a combination of both.
- Small class sizes and educational assistant support provided in each special needs classroom.